Order

5 v.

6 PULSE ELECTRONICS CORPORATION,
7 et al.,

8 Defendants

9 The United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit remanded this case “for the 10 limited purposes of revising the award of interest to Halo and determining whether the 11 supplemental damages award for direct infringement has been paid.” ECF No. 676 at 25.

12 I THEREFORE ORDER the parties to confer to determine if they can reach an agreement
13 on either or both of these two issues. The parties will file a joint status report by May 9, 2025
14 detailing (a) whether they have reached an agreement and how long they need to complete 15 stipulations and settlement documents; or (b) whether the remaining issues (I) can be resolved by 16 written briefs and a proposed briefing schedule, or (II) require an evidentiary hearing for 17 resolution, the parameters of such a hearing, how long the parties need to prepare for that 18 hearing, the length of that hearing, and dates when all parties and witnesses are available.

19 DATED this 7th day of April, 2025.
